Pulling Together

At a county fair a flamboyant sign advertised: "The Strangest Sight in the World!" Those who paid a dime to see the marvel found in the tent ten farmers pulling together on a rope. . . It is different today. Now thousands of farmers, organized as the American Farm Bureau Federation, are pulling together. And they'll get what they want, says

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Folks who think the farmer is going to keep on being the national goat, feeding the world and taking its kicks in pay, have another think coming to them.

Pulling together, the nation's farmers can control their markets—can prove that they are not to blame for the high cost of living, that they are not profiteers. Standing shoulder to shoulder with the farmers of the whole nation is THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Weekly it tells of the struggles and successes of farmers everywhere—and of the practical methods of those who are making money. If you are interested in farming and the farmers' movement, you should subscribe at once. It will cost you only $1 a year for 52 big, helpful weekly issues.

NEGRO RECOVERS $1,500 DIAMOND

Lawyer, 57 East Iowa ave., who was found, seized and robbed of his money, worth $1,500 in his home Thursday night, secured in a fair way to recover a considerable portion of his loss.

Through the efforts of J. G. Gwaltney, detective chief, George Thomas, negro, in company with a negro woman, was arrested on an Illinois Central train at Dyer, Tenn., Wednesday night by a sheriff's deputy. The largest diamond, worth $1,500, was recovered from the negro, who had stolen it from the home of a white man in Chicago, Ill., and had gone forth to sell it.

Turner was in his room when the negroes seized him and took him to a jail about 10 o'clock Tuesday night. He freed himself by 1 o'clock and fled to his home in Chicago. He knew one of the negroes who robbed him, and through this the black man a conversation was had.

Turner had an adventurous time in 1935 and his latest stunt indicates that he will be a strenuous one for him. In May 28, 1935, while he was passing Rayburn boulevard and Broadway, carrying $500 in money, which he had cashed at a negro railroad men's club, he was seized by a negro, who took him to a rooming house and robbed him of the money. Turner lost the entire amount, but it was later recovered by Sgt. Bob Cross, under a house, where the stickup had taken place.

Turner had been in the habit for months of advancing negro employees money, and on pay day taking cash in return, he had been robbed. Turner was later arrested and taken to the state's attorney, where he was given a fine of $50 and costs of court.

PATE CONVICTED

W. W. Pate, charged with violating the liquor law, pleaded guilty to the offense in Second criminal court Thursday and on recommendation of the state's attorney, was given a fine of $50 and costs of court.

MORE SUITS ON WATER AS DRY TIME NEARS

Another contaminated water suit was filed in the circuit court Thursday when George M. Landis, through his attorneys, Prather McDonald, asked for damages in the sum of $15,000, alleging that he drank polluted water from the city mains in April, 1935, when the water supply became contaminated by sewage through the neglect of the city department, and was made seriously ill. The city of Memphis and the water commissioners were made defendants in the suit.

Pig Became Hog; Given Negro Who Fostered Growth

Judge Young does not believe in "Indian giving," and for that reason he was led by additional proof late Wednesday to find the "hog" case in favor of Charlie Jackson.

It appears that Sidney Jackson, negro, Charlie's brother, permitted his flock of pigs to run at large. Charlie says Sid's pig got in his corn patch and ate a number of bushels of the cereal. He kicked and Sid gave him a three-month-old pig to repay him for the damage. Charlie says Sid thought the pig was his hog, but he had better get him back, as he replenished the hog that once was a pig and got possession.

Charlie appealed and Judge Young decided in Charlie's favor.

Sid, after the case was concluded, decided not to appeal the case to the supreme court.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys cease to work properly, you will feel a real sick weariness. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

The old missions spell romance. And there is the gold of oranges at the rainbow's end.

Just California!
